London Paper Predicts U-2 Pilot's Release

London, Sunday, March 12 (AP)— A London newspaper said today that imprisoned American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers may soon be released by the Soviet Union.

The Sunday Pictorial said Powers had been advised by his Russian attorneys to apply for a review of his prison sentence on May 1—exactly one year after his reconnaissance plane came down deep inside Russia. He received a 10-year sentence on spy charges.

The Sunday Pictorial gave no source for its report.
